The Third Collect, for Grace from Morning Prayer

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day: Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Love

Love bade me welcome. Yet my soul drew back
 Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack
 From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
 If I lacked anything.

'A guest,' I answered, 'worthy to be here.'
 Love said, 'You shall be he.'
 'I the unkind, ungrateful? Ah my dear,
 I cannot look on thee.'
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
 'Who made the eyes but I?'

'Truth Lord; but I have marred them; let my shame
 Go where it doth deserve.'
'And know you not,' says Love, 'who bore the blame?'
 'My dear, then I will serve.'
'You must sit down,' says Love, 'and taste my meat:'
 So I did sit and eat.

George Herbert 1593 -1633
