The Second Collect, for Peace from Morning Prayer

O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries; through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Love's Sacrifice

O though who camest from above,
The pure, celestial fire to impart,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
On the mean altar of my heart,
There let it for thy glory burn
With inextinguishable blaze,
And trembling to its source return,
In humble prayer and fervent praise.

Jesus, confirm my heart's desire
To work, and speak, and think for thee,
Still let me guard the holy fire,
And still stir up thy gift in me,
Ready for all thy perfect will
My acts of faith and love repeat,
'Till death thy endless mercies seal,
And make the sacrifice complete.

Charles Wesley 1707 - 1788

Personal Notes

Jesus said: "I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours"
Mark 11 v 24

Please let us know if you would like to be added to the next edition of the Prayer Calendar and please draw attention to any errors or omissions; they will be rectified in subsequent editions.
